Description

The property comprises approximately 810 sq ft GIA of well-presented, self-contained ground-floor accommodation. The current layout provides a welcoming reception area with modern glass partitions, three separate offices, a fitted kitchen with white goods and a modern WC.

The premises benefit from tiled flooring, spot lighting, three air-conditioning units, CCTV, an alarm system and electric security shutters. Existing office furniture, filing cabinets and flat-screen TVs may also remain if required, allowing an occupier to move in with minimal setup.

The property has an electricity supply only, served by a separate commercial meter. The flats above are separately let and are not included within the premises.

The accommodation is ideally suited to continued office use, although alternative commercial uses may be considered, subject to planning and the landlord's consent.

Location

The property occupies a prominent position on Oxford Road, a busy arterial route west of Reading town centre. The area is an established mixed commercial and residential location, with a wide range of shops, cafés and local businesses nearby. Regular bus services operate along Oxford Road, with Reading West railway station and Reading town centre within easy reach.

Summary

- Rent: £20,000 per annum
- Business rates: The premises are currently listed as two separate assessments of £10,750 and £6,700.
- EPC: B (38)
- Lease: New Lease
- Terms: 15 years
