INTRODUCTION

Purdy's Coffee House is located within the town centre of Forfar, ideally located 17 miles north of Dundee and 32 miles south of Aberdeen. The coffee shop is well-known and popular throughout the town, offering a fantastic menu of fully homemade food. Including soup, paninis and toasties as well as a selection of traybakes, cakes, scones and pancakes.

Over the years the seller has undertaken various upgrades and refurbishments to the coffee shop, presenting now a modern and fresh order.

The seller has successfully owned and operated the coffee shop for 18 years and has made the decision to move forward with different business prospects. The availability of Purdy's Coffee House offers a buyer the potential to acquire and established and profitable town centre business. We have been advised that the seller would stay on for a short period to assist the new owner with the transition.
