INTRODUCTION

The Four Seasons Hotel & Little Larder are located in the heart of Perthshire, on the edge of The Loch Lomond & The Trossachs National Park, on the shores of east Loch Earn. With its location at the East End of Loch Earn, a popular Loch for a range of water sports and alongside the main A85 Perth Oban road, the Four Seasons Hotel is ideally situated to capitalise upon its accessibility and the beauty of the surrounding Perthshire countryside. The major population centres of both Stirling and Perth are within an hour's drive whilst Edinburgh and Glasgow are not that much more distant.

The Four Seasons Hotel itself is a 12-bedroom hotel, plus 6 chalets and foreshore frontage, with a prominent position offering enviable views across the loch. The business provides a range of accommodation to suit all guest requirements, the hotel bedrooms and self-catering flat (Lot 1) that are complimented by the chalet accommodation (Lot 2). There is also a fantastic range of food and beverage amenities with the restaurant and bar that take full advantage of the westerly views. Plus, the Little Larder that was opened by the sellers in May 2021, with the mixed use consent to operate a café style with takeaway options available and gift shop. In addition, there is a staff accommodation, a 2-bed self-contained flat within the hotel plus a staff block (Lot 1) located to the rear of the hotel.

Outside, the hotel is set within its own grounds extending to over 0.5 acres. There is also the foreshore (Lot 3) within an area of land, to the front of the hotel, between the public road and loch side, which provides access to the loch and fishing rights on Loch Earn.

The availability of The Four Seasons Hotel & Little Larder and the two additional lots, offers a wonderful opportunity for a purchaser to acquire an established business with substantial property and land located in an enviable setting.
