Union Street Regeneration

Aberdeen City Council has committed £150 million towards the City Centre and Beach Master Plan. The wider Aberdeen City Region Deal, focusing on economic vision and diversification, is valued at £826.2 million, excluding a Memorandum of Understanding for an additional £254 million from the Scottish Government. As of March 2024, 87% of the available resources from the City Region Deal have been utilised.

New Aberdeen Market – Flint

Construction of the new market building directly opposite this property will complete in 2027. It will be a destination venue featuring international-style food and drink outlets and improving pedestrian connectivity between Union Street, Union Square, and the bus/railway stations.

Union Street Central

Streetscaping improvements for Union Street are underway with completion expected in 2026. This represents the biggest change to the street in over 200 years.

Queen Street Development / Former Police HQ Regeneration

A planning application for a £15 million urban park on the nearby Queen Street was lodged in September 2024 creating more green space in the city centre. Demolition of the former police headquarters is planned to prepare the site for future development.

The Beach Revamp

The beachfront redevelopment is a £50 million project, marking the biggest redevelopment of the area in 35 years. Phase one, the enhancement of Broadhill, was completed in July 2025, which included over 10,000 new trees, shrubs, and vegetation. The creation of a new play park and events field is expected to be completed in 2026.

Union Terrace Gardens Revamp

The Gardens reopened in December 2022 after a £28.3 million refurbishment. The project involved planting over 122,000 mixed plants and the creation of 3 retail pavilions. The restoration aimed to improve accessibility, including a wheelchair friendly route integrated into the grand granite staircase. Three high quality operators have been secured for the development – Common Sense Coffee Shop, Sugarbird Wines and Wild Goose.

Union Street Funding Support

A £1 million fund has been launched to revitalise vacant shops on Union Street by supporting renovations for new tenants or businesses. The fund aims to decrease empty shops, attract investment, and create jobs. Grants cover up to 50% of eligible project costs and must be used by the end of the 2025/26 financial year. New tenants may also qualify for Fresh Start Relief, offering 100% business rates relief for up to 12 months. Applications are subject to the approval of the council.
