Description

1 Tennyson Street forms an attractive character property arranged on 3 levels. Originally built as a Nunnery, the building provides period features on the upper floors.

The accommodation is currently fitted to a good standard for office use. Subject to planning permission, the building could be suitable for a range of other uses including conversion to a number of residential flats.

A range of offices are provided on both the ground, first and second floors together with ancillary WC and kitchen facilities.

Outside to the rear there is a parking area.
