SERIOUSLY SUSTAINABLE

THE KENSINGTON BUILDING OFFERS SUSTAINABILITY ON EVERY LEVEL, FROM CONSTRUCTION METHODS AND MATERIALS TO ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND WILDLIFE FRIENDLY GREENERY.

By remodelling an outdated building into a brand-new one, The Kensington Building has saved significant energy and emissions compared with building from scratch. It all adds up – 100% of excavation waste and 99% of construction and demolition waste has been diverted from landfill, 100% of electricity comes from a renewable source, and re-purposing the building’s existing frame has saved thousands of tonnes in CO2 emissions. Plus, the 12,329 sq ft of terraces are a boost for biodiversity.

The building has achieved BREEAM Excellent.

TECH THAT MAKES YOUR DAY

THE SMART TECHNOLOGIES INTEGRATED THROUGHOUT THE BUILDING OFFER THE FREEDOM TO FOCUS ON WHAT'S IMPORTANT, AND MAKE GOING ABOUT YOUR BUSINESS A BREEZE.

Everyone who works at The Kensington Building can use the dedicated app to get contactless access wherever they need to be. It kicks in as soon as you enter the building, and controls security gates, lifts and opens doors as you move around inside. No more rummaging around for card passes or lanyards. It can even control the A/C, heating and lighting in specific areas. Visitors, meanwhile, can be granted contactless access using a QR code.

THE BUILDING

THE KENSINGTON BUILDING'S STRIKING ARCHITECTURE IS A BREATH OF FRESH AIR YET COMPLETELY AT HOME IN ITS HISTORIC SURROUNDINGS.

VAST TERRACES

TURN UP THE VOLUME

WITH HUGE WINDOWS AND HIGH CEILINGS FEATURING THROUGHOUT, WHATEVER FLOOR YOU'RE ON, YOU'LL HAVE THE BEST SEAT IN THE HOUSE.

The offices at The Kensington Building have, on average, 33% more cubic metre space versus a typical building.

SPHERE 14 - LESLEY HILLING

“THE PIECE IS ABOUT MEMORY AND THE PASSAGE OF TIME. THE SPHERE IS MADE OF A SALVAGED WOODEN STRUCTURE FILLED WITH A LIFETIME’S COLLECTED MATERIALS.”

LESLEY HILLING, ARTIST

A feature of the reception area is an artwork by London artist Lesley Hilling. Made specifically for The Kensington Building, the piece re-purposes ‘waste’ objects such as fragments of marble, wood, metal and other salvaged items that caught the artist’s eye. This fascinating piece is suspended from the ceiling and lit from within.

ABOVE & BEYOND

LIGHT, SPACE, HEIGHT, VIEWS
– THESE ARE OFFICES TO GET EXCITED ABOUT.

Inside you'll find a thoroughly modern take on how the workspaces of today should look and feel, with clever interior design and carefully chosen natural materials that create a warm, inviting atmosphere. Huge terraces are the icing on the cake.

RECEPTION MATERIALS

The light and spacious reception offers a warm welcome to all. Here, beautiful natural materials meet a contemporary industrial vibe, and integrated technology makes for a smoother journey to your desk.

TEXTURAL TIMBER

A bespoke ash timber feature wall injects an interesting natural texture.

SCULPTURAL MARBLE

The reception desk is carved from Nero Marquina marble, a striking focal point.

CLEAN-LINED CONCRETE

Concrete columns enhance the reception's lofty ceiling height and lend the space a subtle industrial edge.

FEATURE ARTWORK

Made specifically for The Kensington Building by London Artist Lesley Hilling.

ELEGANT BRICKWORK

A brick feature wall draws the building's exterior design within, and is a nod to Kensington's period architecture.

NATURAL STONE

Floors are laid with grey basalt, with entrance stair treads accented in contrasting limestone.

EXTERIOR MATERIALS

Formerly the site of Ponting's department store, The Kensington Building retains the grand proportions of the original floor plates and ceiling heights to give the spaces light and volume rarely found in the new-builds of today.

GLAZING

Glazing is framed by finely detailed metalwork.

BRICKWORK

White limestone echoes the pale white Roman brick and Portland stone of the neighbouring buildings.

OFFICE MAIN ENTRANCE

A 3.5 metre high revolving door finished in bronze effect powder coating with motorised pass door adjacent.

BRONZE

Bronze-effect powder-coated aluminium adds an industrial edge.

THE TERRACES

THE BUILDING'S EXPANSIVE
TERRACES PROVIDE THE ULTIMATE
LUNCH BREAK HANGOUT, SPACE TO MEET UP, WORKOUT AND MORE.

MAKE FRIENDS IN HIGH PLACES

LOCATED ON FLOOR 3, A PRIVATE TERRACES OFFER 2,296 SQ FT OF FLEXIBLE OUTDOOR SPACE TO MEET UP, WORK OUT AND MORE.

The beautifully landscaped, west-facing terrace is designed to promote wellbeing and adapt to a range of situations and needs, whether you need seclusion in which to focus on work or have lunch, space to get together or host a big event, or get some fresh air. On the 3rd floor terrace you can enjoy the light, space and year-round greenery.

UPPER FLOOR TERRACES

MOVE THE MEETING OUTSIDE

WITH HUGE TERRACES, GETTING SOME HEADSPACE – OR SWITCHING UP YOUR WORKSPACE – IS EASY.

The large terraces bordered by green planting play a key role in the building's commitment to sustainability and the wellbeing of its people, providing valuable space to breathe, take a break and enjoy the uninterrupted views across London and atmosphere of buzzing Kensington below.

THE OFFICES

THE OFFICES AT THE KENSINGTON BUILDING BRING TOGETHER FORWARD-THINKING INTERIOR DESIGN AND FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES TO MAKE EVERYDAY WORKLIFE MORE ENJOYABLE.

Linda Morey-Burrows, Founder and Principal Director at MoreySmith said: “Our vision for the Kensington Building was to create a range of different interactive designs that illustrate the potential of the exceptional space the building provides across industries. The designs maximise the natural daylight and views connecting to the surrounding natural elements to provide a biophilic design to foster wellbeing and open collaborative working.”

“More than ever, tenants are seeking a residential-style environment that provides a comfortable and relaxed ambience to work, beyond just a desk. This has been achieved through the use of natural materials and colour palette and by creating a varied and flexible layout that encourages communal working, informal meetings and socialising.”

A PLACE TO BE INSPIRED

FIVE FLOORS OF LIGHT-FILLED OFFICES PROVIDE FLEXIBLE WORKSPACES DESIGNED TO MEET TODAY'S EXACTING STANDARDS.

To encourage cycling to work, the building has a brightly decorated cycle store offering private and secure storage for up to 165 bikes.

Next to the cycle store, luxury showers and changing rooms make it easy to freshen up after the journey into work or prep for a night out.

Ceiling heights of up to 5 metres fill spaces with natural light and create a sense of space and openness.

The building's app enables contactless access around the building, and can be used to book meetings, adjust climate controls, arrange events and more.
