When every working day matters, we make sure your people have the right environment to work at their best.

As hybrid working becomes more common, businesses need more flexible work environments. Landmark is the only serviced office provider using AI in helping companies create their perfect hybrid workspace, maximising employee happiness and productivity, and minimising costs:

- A unique approach to designing your perfect environment
- Hassle-free office space – ready to go when you are
- Cost-effective, fully fitted, premium workspace with everything included in one monthly fee
- No lease commitments and no upfront capital expenditure
- Secure 24/7 access and building security
- Easy to scale workspace as required with no rigid long-term leasing commitments

You're in good hands at Landmark.

We're part of the OCS Group – an international facilities management company providing the expertise and assurance of partnering with a 120-year-old business.

We create the perfect hybrid working environment for your clients

1. We understand your employees workspace needs before you move

- We work with your employees to understand their workspace needs before they move
- Using Cognito AI, we engage employees in assessing their workplace in a fun, interactive way. Discovering how it performs from a people, technology, process and property perspective
- We ensure your future workplace is designed to maximize your team's productivity, and happiness!

2. We create the perfect workspace

- We discover what's essential to you and your employees and what you want to achieve in their new space
- We analyse the type of work your teams will do in the new hybrid working world, and combine this with Cognito's insights, to design the perfect new environment
- We create anything from collaborative to concentration space or a mix of work zones that flex to accommodate the peaks and troughs of hybrid working

3. Your space, your way – premium service and great locations

- You'll love Landmark's famous hospitality, our teams offer a friendly smile and day-to-day support
- Your clients can choose their own dedicated reception on their own private floor
- Plus they'll enjoy the convenience of working at any of our 25 co-working Club Spaces across the UK, with collaborative, social and quiet zones and a choice of over 100 meeting rooms
- Excellent WiFi and technology make hybrid working easy, including our 'digital-first meeting rooms to make video calls more inclusive
